The world of tea under one roof

With our range of tea extracts
and finished product solutions, we've left no leaf unturned.

In 1879, Hälssen & Lyon first opened its doors to the world of tea. Today, we are a global enterprise, with a network of customers, partners and suppliers that spans the world.

Over 50 years ago, we took the first pioneering steps into the then new world of tea extracts. This turned out to be an epic source of inspiration for the company. We have lead the way as suppliers of tea extracts to established and progressive beverage markets since.

Your single source for tea, fruit and herbal teas and their extracts.

The tea market is global, complex and dynamic. Our solution is simple and highly effective.

Our services comprise the importation from the countries of origin, careful storage, production and just-in-time deliveries – supplemented by our profound knowledge of the different international markets and trends. Our regulatory and quality controls ensure the high quality of our products every step of the way from production to delivery.

Our storage and production facilities for tea, fruit and herbal products are amongst the most modern in the world, endorsed by supplies from long-term partners who share our high quality standards.

Taking the pulse of the markets.

As the tastes and demands of the markets evolve and expand, we have been keen to stay ahead. Today there's scarcely a single aspect of the tea business that we haven't subjected to a process of perfection, allowing us to indulge in our passion: the creation of the finest, most compelling products for constantly changing markets.

The variety of our products.

Hälssen & Lyon is passionate about tea. We source raw materials from more than 130 countries of origin. The variety of our products is huge, and the scale of individual possibilities almost infinite. Over the years, we have created solutions for every taste, every target group, every application and every market.
